GRAY-BEARDED, grizzled, slender man walked at the side of former President Roosevelt as the distinguished American disembarked from the steamer Admiral at Mombasa, in British East Africa, to enjoy the dinner tendered him and his party by the Mombasa Club before he made his way inland for the hunt-

All the way from Naples, too, cabled news of the progress of the ship had been forwarded to Mombasa, drawing from the interior thousands of natives, who traveled hundreds of miles simply for the chance to familiar among the savages.

"'Dead? How can they be dead? Who killed them?" them?"
"'Yhat do people call me, Gobo?"
"Ther call you Mecumazahn."
"And what does Macumazahn mean?"
"It means the man who keeps his eyes open, the man who gets up in the night."—H. Rider Haggard, in "Malwa's Revenge."

HERLOCK HOLMES may have achieved a wider fame as a distinctively literary creation; but the character of Allan Quaternian yields to none in modern fiction for the affection it has inspired in readers or for deeds that surpass the marvelous. The famous Holmes himself never excelled in detection the exploits of Quatermain in huntgaze upon Roosevelt, the "great white chief," whose fame had penetrated the modern times, Frederick Courtenay Selons,

But the remarkable facts about Haggard's here are that his living original has achieved all and more than the wonderful tales told of him in fiction; that he has faced and conquered the most dangerous of wild beasts as many and as feroclous as those of all in II ggard's tales; and also that, where civilization knows the un-real hunter as well as it knows its own butchers or brothers in law perhaps be for savagory knows the real hunter as it has known and reverenced no other white man.

As for any Sherlock Holmes in the flesh. the people who have met all the originals that ever claimed to be the astute detective's prototype dwindle to a mere coterie in comparison with the thousands, from the Rockies to the upper Nile, who have testified to the provess Sclous. He is the greatest elephant hunter

Africa has ever held.

It is said of him that he has slain more than 100 elephants, nearly half a hundred lions, and as for rhinoceri and buffalo, both danger-ous foes to meet, their numbers bring the total of his really perilous encounters into the thou-

"Allan Quatermain:" able specimens for which science is indebted to his daring and his skill. Now, at the age of 59 years, when he is lending his unparalleled experience to this latest hunt, he is recognized as Africa's most indefatigable big-game pursuer since he was a boy of 15.

Yet, while he has tracked numberless hords of elephan's for their ivory tusks and faced scores of lions in deadly encounter, he has never killed for the mere sake of killing. The greater number of his shots have been fired for the prime need of man, food; and during one period, extending over fifteen years, apart from the rice which supplied the farinaceous portion of his diet, he lived exclusively upon the game he brought down with his rifle.

The quotation from Haggard's well-told neident in "Maiwa's Revenge" closes fiction's account of Quatermain's unrelenting pursuit of the huge bull clephants that made the mouth of the veteran hunter fairly water for their possession. He had wounded the largest of hem; but, aided by his companions, the im-nense heast succeeded in escaping for the day. Quaternain took up the hunt and stuck it until his negro followers, wearied and aprehensive, were on the verge of rebellion. Then, in the night, while his men were all isleep, he heard the trumpet of an elephant.

Alone, in the treacherous moonlight, he et out to stalk the dangerous brutes. Endeavring to surprise them, he was himself beset by all three. By incredible agility and an amazing celerity of rifle fire he slew every one. Text morning he enjoyed the dismay and disomfittire of Gobo, the leader of the rebellious

Such a hunting story is, ordinarily, readble only in fiction, just as Haggard's account f how Quatermain shot a rhinoceros through he horn would be taken to be the allowable icense of the romancer.

GOES BEYOND FICTION

But it is precisely here that the real Nimod of Africa has equaled, and often gone far cyond, the exploits of the unreal Quatermain-he mythical Macumazalur's adventures with hephants and lions are no more thrilling than ave been flose which, in plain fact, befell the cal one; and if Mr. Roosevelt have in his comany anything like the hunter's luck which has ttended his new comrade he will not only have onders to relate on his own account, but he ill be a little more than fortunate if he come

Nevertheless, he picked out the finest isker of that vast herd, rode within 100 yards

At that instant a powerful cow elephant heeled and charged Selous. He succeeded in urring his horse into the thick brush and the ephant abundanced the case. Selous promptly and the selection of the succeeded the company and attacked the sumed the role of pursuer and attacked the

It was almost suicide, for he sustained larges by huge clephants that made two yards his horse's one, and once dismounting, he left is horse to its fate, in the hope of being himlif overlooked. Instead of anything worse octring, the charging elephant simply stood bethe wiant beast had been a rock; then the phant wall ed quietly away and Selous, a few inutes later, killed it.

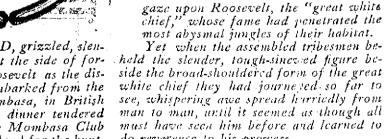

In all, that day he slew, single handed, five eat elephants, a record that leaves the romancg by Haggard regarding Quatermain very s fall potatoes, indeed.

Revenge Because He Found Her Compromised With One of His Factors

(BY MALCOLM CLARKA)

FRLIN. May 22 -The aristocracy of all Southern Europe is aghast at the almost incredible occurrences which have taken place in the family of the wealthy Roumanian Prince Strashnitsky. The details appear for the first time in the Lokalanzoiger.

At Willomsk station the railway officials toticed upon an open truck a big. tightly corded parcel without any name or address. They opened it and found therein a woman, very young and beautiful, whose flesh was cut by cords.

Only after prolonged efforts was the mysterious woman recalled to conscious-

She described thereupon that appalling outrage of which she was the victim. Her husband, Prince Strashnitsky, she said, had suspected her of betraying him, and the suspicion was well founded. Her lover was the factor in the Prince's Roumanian estate and between the loveblinded pair an elopument had been planned. A servant betrayed the scheme

Frontier Dangers

Battle, murder, and sudden death are daily incidents of life on the German-Russian 'rontier.

The cause of this is the habit of the Russian "frontier guard" of allowing smuggling on payment of a fixed sum and shooting remorselessly all who refuse or are unable to pay.

Dr. Wladan Goorgewitsch, formorly Servian Minister-President and intimate friend and adviser of the late King Milan, has published at Stuttgart, in Germany, a remarkable historical remance, "Golgotha," covering the interval between the divorce of the Servian King and his abdication. German critics agree that, unlike most up-to-date historical omences, "Golgatha" has as great literary merits as it has historical value. Milan, who appears under the thin dis-

(BY PAUL VILLIERS.)

ARIS, May 22.— Castro, who is back in Paris, has not coased to complain bitterly of his expulsion from Fort de France, but is now resigned to his fate, concerning which he is not quite clear. Questioned as to his intentions, Castro says he regards himself as a prisoner of war, and therefore can decide nothing. "I am like a bird without a nest." he said, "like Diogenes seeking for a man with a lantern. But, like Francois I. I can shout out: "Everyething is lost says honor."

like Francois I. I can shout out: 'Everything is lost save honor'.'

The ex-dictator intends to remain in Paris for some little time. He is staying at a large hotel near the Place de lay Concorde, and his intention is to consuit specialists. 'I admire France, the cradle of liberty,' he said graphiloquently. "Has she not shed torrents of blood in the cause of humanity, for the rights of man? How is it possible that France, so noble and so generous, allowed America to affront her flag?" He declared that four days after the steamer Versailles left Santander, two American battleships followed the vessol carrying the French flag. When Castro arrived at St. Nazaire a letter in English was handed to him. The writer set forth that he was an officer of the active army, and that he offered his services to enable Castro to regain the presidency. "Deed men have no need of being defended," was Castro's tearful comment on this offer of service.

Time of His Life

A major-domo of Russian family, has fust had an unpleasant experience at the hands of a boulevard siren. He came to Paris a few days ago, and decided to see a little life before going back to St. Fetorsburk. He treated himself to lavish dinners in one of those restaurants which a meal fell into conversation with a are described as fashionable, and during woman whose beauty and elegant cothes impressed him. The Russian prolonged the meal, for he found his chance acquaintance very charming.

With a gallantry which is not the execution of the second size of the quantance very charming.

With a gullantry which is not the exclusive prerogative of Frenchmen, he entertained the lady in various cases in Montmartre, and returned to his hotel in the Champs Blysee quarter quite pleased with himself. His dominant impression was that he 'had seen a little of the life where "on s'amuse" and he was quite pleased with the prospect of being able to inform his friends in St. Petersburg that he knew more about Paris than burg that he knew more about Paris than they could possibly tell him

But, as his cab was traversing the Avenue d'Antin, the Russian made a disconcerting discovery. He found that the inside pocket of his coat had ceased to buige our. In point of fact, it lacked his pocket book which contained some-thing like 5000 frames in notes. The Russian's idea of enjoyment now under-went a sudden transformation. He left the cah and reported his loss at the near-est police station.

Conclerges Fight

Concierges are not invariably remarkable for anniability or politeness, and tenants who happen to fall foul of them usually come off second best. An energetic woman has, however, so far contrived to score against her concierge, and her landlord as well, by means of very ingenious tactics, which could only be devised in a resolute feminine brain.

War to the knife was declared long ago, between her and her conclerge, and a lawsuit about some correspondence so disgusted the landlord that he had so disgusted the landlord that he had summarily evicted his fair tenant. But the lady was not to be baffled, and as the landlord would not consent to take her back on any terms, and she was keen after victory, she abandoned the frontal attack on which has had so long engaged for a turning movement.

Among the tenants of that particular Among the tenants of that particular house were several bachelors, and she bethought her of one who had a very long lease. A hint that she was willing led to marriage with this gentleman, and after the weedling she returned to the house in triumph, and, to the consterna tion of the defeated conclerge, who has now a couple of determined fees instead of one. In utter despair, the landlord has applied to the law courts, and an fact in determining h to load his of one. In utter despair, the landord has applied to the law courts, and an averaged only by sacrific of the Budget difficult to see on what ground the newy wedded pair can be expelled from their "Land, ho! upon the starboard bow!" and Dingleberry barked "Bow wow!" Nip takes a look through spyglass and exclaims, "Hooray! it's Pirate Land! There's Captain Kidd, and Morgan, too; besides, each has a pirate crew!"

3. Upon a table, worn and old, the pirates counted up their  $\xi$  old; And, as if each feared for his life, in one hand he did grasp a knife,

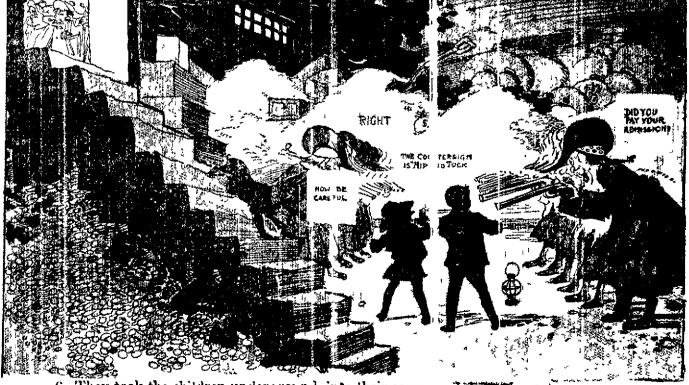

5. Said Captain Kidd, "Belay the fight! Here's visitors; let's be polite!" And in a truce they stopped the row; each pirate made a courtly bow; With courtesy on every hand, they welcomed them to Pirate Land.

2. The pirates were a motley crew, with noses paint d red and blue. While tankards passed around the throng, the pirates started up a song. A treasure chest, and on the lid sat fifteen men at I Captain Kidd.

4. Said one old pirate with a snort, "Help! Thieves I'm ten gold pieces short!" The rest rose to their feet as one, and every pirate frew a gun. "Who is a thief! Take that for you!" And, bingo! how the bullets flew!

They took the children underground, into their caves, and Tynig round Were chests of gems and sacks of gold—it was the irates' treasure hold. Fierce-looking sentries stood in line, "Halt! Who poes there! The countersign!"

Wonderful Gypsy Lad. Legend of the Banished King Who Makes His Violin Talk.

KALMAN REV, AND THE MEETING WITH HUBAY

10M a dark recess of the little room came low, sweet quavers of a stringed musical instrument. Popular ballads and folk songs, such as the valls of the inn had often echeed when a merry company was present, were now being played, delightfully and In perfect turn

The was the musician? A lady tiptoed softly from an adjoining room and runds her way quietly over to the dark corper. A moment later she was heard to exclaim:

"Wly its Kalman! But the little boy who had caused this surprise seemed not to hear He played, with a rapt, far-away look in his eyes, as though in a Gream.

When the last strain had died away, Kilman's aunt examined the musical instrument. She found that an ear of malze had been hollowed out to form a resounding box like a violin and that there was a crude bridge and bits of string. This, together with a bow, had been fashloned by a thry boy who was surcely I years old' And so it came about that the aunt of the baby musician took him away from the ira of the hamlet of Putza, Hungary. In Budapest she taught him to play the violin and the plane. One day, when he was 7 years old, she went with 1 in to the great master, Hubay After a long talk with the aunt, the great musician took a violin, tuned it carefully and gave it to the boy to play, Kalcuan pinched the strings, and said:

low."
"No, it is a little high, ' said Kalman, with assurance. Thereupon he tuned the instrument properly. And then he played with all his skill and all his become happy and contented, prosperity would come also."

So he vowed that he would travel among the nations of the world, to discover how peace was best maintained. In order that it would be impossible for him to be called back to attend to metters of state, he ban-lished blinseif or one whole year. As an exile, the monarch must needs travel alone without a retinue. But there being no telegraph or telephone in those days he devised a plan whereby he might be kept in touch with matters oncerning his kingdom and by which he could exchange messages with his queen whenever it was desired. Pollowing the kingwithin carshot was a courtier, and behind this contributions and the vice distance. Others followed in a long line, so that the king could shout a message, and it would be passed along the person behind, until it reached the ears of the queen.

Hubay said nothing. Later he talked with Kalmin's annt, finally, announcing that he would take the boy and make great violinist of him, without charge for tuitlon!

This was the real beginning of Kalman Rev's education. Today, at 12 years of age, he is playing in London, where multitudes go to listen and wonder at this remarkable boy who can make his violin say such marvelous Kalman studies bard, but he enjoys it

You're a Brick

O DOUBT you have often heard one man say to another

Perhaps you will think it is a very queer thing to say, but I will tell you how such a saying is said to have come

Many, many years ago a famous kingsent an ambassador to another famous king. The ambassador was much surprised to find that the king whom was visiting had no walls around his city.

In those days, of course, in order to keep out enemies, nearly every city was surrounded by strong and high walls. So the surprised ambasesdor sailf to the king, "Why, you have no walls for the city?"

"We have." said the king.
"Where, where?" asked the ambassador, have surprised than ever.
The king then pointed to his largerarmy, which was not far away, and said, with a smile, "There are the walls of my city. Every man you see is a brick!"

The king meant that an enemy would have to defeat those soldiers before they that is, the enemy—could enter the city.

San Francisco and Sister Cities Face a Crisis in Jobbing Business and Shipping

WORD OF WARNING SENT TO WHEELER

Will Minimize Effect of the Good of Panama Canal.

BAN FRANCISCO, May 22. - San Francisco is threatened with a crisis in her job ang business and the loss o her prestige as a distributing center, by the proposed new rallway freight rates, following the Interstate Commerce decision in the Snokane case. A word of warning to this effect has been sent William R. Wheeler, manager of the Traffic Bureau of the Merchants' Exshange by Interstate Commerce Commissioner Franklin K. Lone. That organization is aroused to a realization of the seriousness of the intended move on the part of the railways, and the necessity for making one of the greatest strugglis in the history of the city to avert the carrying out of the scheme. Those in touch with the far-reaching effect of railway rates on the commerce of the country see an attempt to forestall as far as possible, and minimize. the effect he completion of the Panama anal will have on the transportation of the country, by putting into operation tariffs tha will give the middle west immense manufacturing advantages. Thus centers that will insure hauls from the center of the country to every di-rection, will be built up without fear water competition.

Minimized Advantages

It is asserted that if the rates now scheduled o go into effect at Spokane, are permitted to stand, it will mean that readiuntments will be made to 34 h points as Itano, Las Vegas, Albuquerque and Tucson, thus neutralizing the advantages to this city's geographical location and Hutting her distribution to the territory vest of the fort-hills of the somer of the decision of the Commis-sion in the Spidame case, will still in-sure the relative positions of the Pa-cific Coast cities, and, at the same time do away with the objectionable features of the proposed rates

ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY AT UNIVERSITY CALIFORNIA

It was announced today in scien tific circles at the University of Callfornia that Professor T. J. J. Sec. J. S. Navy, the officer in charge of the Observatory at Mare Island, had succeeded in proving by intricate mathematical reasoning that all the mathematical reasoning that all the satellites revolving about the planets of the solar system were originally captured, in the midst of the spiral nebula from which the system was developed, and had become permanently attached to the several planets, owing to the secular effects produced by the nebular resisting medium once permatical to the secular effects produced by the medium resisting medium once permatical terms of the secular content of the secula ading the regions where the planets now move.

Professor See's discoveries have been cabled to the Astronomische Nachrichten at Kiel, German, which is the principal international journal Nachrichten at Kiel, German, which is the principal international journal of astronomers, and will shortly be published there. By mathematicians and astronomers they were regarded as among the most important discoveries of our time, and are certain to awaken profound interest among men of science throughout the world. Ever since the publications of Laplace's Hypathesis at Paris in 1796, it has been supposed that the satellites are the offipping of the several planets, having been detached as rings when the primordal planets were rotating very rapidly; and it has been supposed that the planets had been thrown off the sun in the same way. It was while stationed at Mare Island that Nixon met and became infatuated with Miss Louden, visiting her frequently. Then he went East. Two menths ago he returned to San Francisco and renewed his suit. Several trips were made to Vallejo, and Miss Louden saw him in San Francisco. But she persistently refused his offers of marriage.

Relatives Silent

Joseph L. Nixon, an accountant for the Southern Pacific Railway, living at 1835 Euclid avenue. Berkedey, is a half brother of the San Francisco suicide. At the Nixon home they were averse to discussing the tragedy. Mrs. Nixon said that the dead man and her husband had very little to do with each other and had not been social friends for some years.

She volunteered the information that the suicide is a cousin of Jared Sanders, Governor of Louislana, but claimed to know nething of the dead man's life for the past few months.

The husband refused to discuss the matter.

Burke ould not be seen today to reconcile to difference between his statement to the congregation and the court records, and the Rev. Mr. Pos was reported by his friends to be in retreat with his famil at Shasta Springs.

"The whole thing looks very irregular," ald William J. Flerce, chairman of the committee that has been investigating the clergyman's marriage. "Instead of appearing before the committee Friday night to speak for himself, the Rev. Mr. Pos sent clawyer and other persons, who made a lat of statements not borne out by public records.

"The committee has no interest in the matter further than wishing to learn the exact truth, but the course pursued by the Rev. JAr. Pos' friends Friday certainly did not ndicate that they desired the exact truth."

something of an outbreak that is sure to take place.

"Father Adam," the mascot built erries belonging to every man aboard the Maryland has been shanghaled, and by somebody aboard one of the three ships of the hist division—either the Tenessee, the California or the Washington. If any ore of those ships was known to be the right ship, now, the old packet would be as marked as any craft that ever sailed the Spanish main, but the Maryland's crew hestattes to tackle three ships.

Maryland's crew hesitates to tackle three sites.

This muscot, "Father Adam," is a very clever and brave pup. The other day, when so no in it has mares took him with them on a jaint to Mare Island, he got lost. Up in being found again "Father Adam" was sont down to the city, consigned it the Maryland, where he belonged. He went out in one of the fleet's steam hamches, but he never reached the Maryland. And soon afterward the first division put to see for Puget So ind, as though they knew they might be held up for that down it they tarried.

Senator Aldrich Tried a Test By Asking a Vote on June 2

MAYBE JUNE 20 WILL BE THE TIME FIXED

Different Senators Express Views About Amendments to Be Made

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Pallure today mut the first serious attempt of Sena-tor Aldrich of Rhode Island, chaliman of the finance committee, to fix a day when the senate shall take a final vote on the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill and all pending amendments thereto. Senator Duniel of Virginia objected to the fixing of the date and as such an order in the senate can be made only by unanimous consent, there was an ord to it for the present. Mr. Aldrich's request was for

"I object."
"That ends it," remarked several senators on both sodes in an audible whisper.

Cummins Objects

Mr. Cummins did not take his scat, but proceeded to say that he hoped Mr. Aldrich would not press his request too hard. He said that several republican senators felt that certain amendments to the bill ought to be roviewed. The senators, he held, had not unduly delayed the proceedings so far, bur had confined to the points at issue. Personally Mr. Cumulus declared he was fust as eager as the senator from Rhode Island to speedly end the debate. He wanted to see it proceed as far as possible with a view to full and fair discussion. Ho said he voiced the sontinents of several republican son tors when he said that within those limits they would aid Mr. Aldrich to get early action.

The chairman of the thance commit-tee said he fully appreciated the atti-tude of Mr. Cumulus and that he had no intention to limit free debate. He thought Mr. Cummins would agree that there had already been much irrelevant discussion on the bill. He expressed the hope that a date for the vote might soon be fixed.

Law on July 1
Then Senator Hale of Maine, got to his feet and asked what proportion of the bill still remained to be acted upon.
Mr. Aldrich's answer was that he believed in point of number of paragraphs, about one half of the bill still granting. about one half of the bill still remained and that of that remainder one half of the peragraphs were subjects of dispute. Therefore he believed the majority of the disputed paragraphs of the entire measure had been disposed of to date. July 1 is the date that is now gener-ally fixed for the bill to become a law.

MURDER CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—News of the death of Captain John Dayer has just been received here. He had sailed on many voyages between this city and Great Britain, and was last here as commander of the large Farge Express Company began suit yesterday against the city to recover $1900 in taxes which the corporation claims was paid under protest. The amount covers the assessment of the franchise held by the company which was valued at $100,000 and assessed at the current tax rate of $1.90.

It is claimed by the corporation that cliff the city was vested with no authority to assess this franchise as the company did not irransact a transportulon husiness and had no need for a feanchise compliant recitos that the levying of such at tax is unconstitutional under the companion of this State as well as the United States constitution.

"FIGHTING DICK" IS GAINING MANY NEW ADMIRERS EVERY DAY

HYLAND BELIEVES HE WILL PROVE NELSON'S DOWNFALL

Marvelous Dane's Resistance Powers Do Not Frighten Fighting Cornishman, Who Is Very Confident.

By EDDIE SMITH.

URING the last few yours we have learned to pay little attention to fashionable diseases, such as appendicitis, baseballitis, marathonitis and several others, but there now appears a new malady on the ground that has evidence of being very contagious, in fact, so much so that the fans of pugdom will have to look sharp or it will take them in hand during the next will take them in hand during the next few days.

This new complaint is known as Hylandills, and whether or not it will prove futul will not be decided by the experts until next Saturday afternoon. The average layman is willing to bet that it will prove fatul to the extent of about two dollars for one, but there still remains the fact that several have been attacked with it, and until the decision is rendered by the releves after the scientific wonders. Mr. Oscar Battling Nelson and Mr. Richard Hyland, have gone through their reland, have gone through their re-

The method to be used by these gentlemen will hardly be of the scientific method, either; it will no doubt be of a character known as the hard, rough, slam-bang order, and if Nelson comes out best, then the Hylanditis will have been proven disastrous to those who have been eaught with the

those who have been eaught with the malady at a time when they had money to wager.

That the disease is contagious is made evident by the number of people who visit the camp of Hyland in Alameda to watch him train and then come away with the complaint that no manner of argument seems role to shake "Fighting Dick" and his manager are so theroughly taken up in their belief that the new Hylanditis will not prove fatal that they are staking their all on the chances of Richard proving their case, and both laye little hesitancy is register to any number of reasons to prove their theory. Region the complaint that no manner of argument seems rible to shake of Fighling Dick? and his manager are so theroughly taken up in their belief that the new Hylanditis will not prove tatal that they are staking their all on the churces of Richard proving their case, and both have little hesitancy in pointing to any number of reasons to prove their theory.

Nelson Has Many Advantages

The same arguments that have been advanced by the Hyland camp have been set forth by other men tackling this man Nelson, but they have falled one after the other. Hyland is confident, however, and when he tells you are forced to admit that he is sincere and that his arguments are good.

The cut of Nelson, shown elsewhere on this page, with the diagram showing the winderful powers of the champion, nucle expressly for THE TRIB-UNE by Tr. D. D Crowley, almost one year ago, after the Battler had become the champion, show the strong points of this wonderful Creat Dane, and make it appear as if Hyland had undertaken a hard task.

The uan of medicine, after making the physical examination of the fighter, give out a statement in which he said that the only thing that would be brought on by constant beatings or an over-indulgence in training.

"Repeated blows on the head will in time awaken a nerve irritability. His brait, that organ now so slow to punishment, will become more sensitive and responsible but to the next the medico matie.

"Repeated blows on the head will in time awaken a nerve irritability. His brain, that organ now so slow to punishment, will become more sensitive and responsive to violence" says Dr. Crowley. Nelson has had little benting during his training bouts, and he has not trained any slace the medico made his examination, but in his statement he hinted that the break-down would office and this to a certain extent is what the fans are backing Hytand's book on

Hyland's look on

Hyland's loo The Mr. Wisenheimers are saying that it is a sign of decline, and those who are I toking for a chance to bet that the champion has gone to the end of his rope have found food for thought. Hyland, were he examined as Nelson has been, I believe, would be found as durable as the Dane, for he cortainly has wonderful lasting powers, and his ability to take punishment is best told by a glance at his record, the only knock-out being one he received from Frankie Nell when in a weakened condition from over-training.

Hylard would have a hard time beating some of the monthat Nelson has met and defeated, owing to his shortness of reach and height, but with the Battler he will have nothing much to overcome, and if he is the fighter with Nelson he has proven himself to be with other pugs, he will make an interesting battle.

Nelson has never been knocked out in the ring and his reverse for white boys who have slarted around these diggins.

Sullivin is an exceptionally elever fellow with a straight left punch that is almost always in the face of his opponent, and how Whitney can expect to avoid it is more than I can tell, although he says that he will do so, has expressed the opinion that he will wade right in and slug from the start, in the hope of winning by a knock-out.

Bennett and Reagan to Meet

Sully in has only had ten days in which to train, but he says that he will be right when he steps into the ring. Mike has quietly imparted to his friends the rip to get a bet down that he will win by a kneed-out, so if Whitney comes rushing he will no doubt find Michael waiting for him.

In the preliminary bout Jockey Bennett and Jimmy Reagan will trot over the ten-round course, and as both boys are known to the Oakhand fains, this bout should appeal to them. Fact is, I believe that the contest between these little fellows will be better than the main event, and will be worth the time and trouble of witnessing.

Bennett made many friends here with his contest against Attell and Reagan his made more friends in his contest here than any lighter who has appeared in Oakland in years. Dick Hart and a welter-weight from Los Angeles will also meet in a six-round preliminary.

Protest of Athenians Denied by Cal Ewing

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—J. Cal Bwing, president of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, denied today the pro-test of the Onkland club against the game won by Portland, at the latter club's licine city, in the series which hegan on April 27. The protest filed by Hogan, charged that the unpire would not permit Truesdale to take first base when he was hit by a slow pitched ball. It is denied by Prosident Ewing, because it questions the decision of the umpire on the ground that he was not correct in his conclusion as to whether the batsman did or did not attempt to get out of the way of the pitched ball.

Is practically an impossibility in the STUDEBAKER automobile. The new magnetic plug system of ignition which is operated by the low tension Bosch magneto, the entire control of which is owned by the STUDEBAKER concern, represents the highest type of perfection in Ignition devices. Its remarkable success in the STUDEBAKER car is the topic of many cross-reads discussions, as nine-tenth of the motorists' troubles are due to faulty igni ion. The complete elimination of this worrisome feature is one of the reasons why the STUDEBAKER leaped into the healthy and enviable popularity the car now enjoys. It is one of the reasons why you see so many STUDEBAKERS in use. The perfection of the mechanical construction throughout the car is another reason; the exquisite luxury afforded by a STUDE-BAKER is still another reason and last, but not least, is the unquestionable guarantee of a house which dates its experience in carriage and vehicle construction back over sixty years. Compared to such credentials, other concerns are either mere infants or pale into insignificance. Our booklet "W" describes in detail and convincingly our models "C" and "D." Until you have perused this you are not in a position to make a judicious selection of a

Getting Ready for the Political Campaign in San Francisco

Officials Want to Make Metropolis Like New England Village

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22. - Uverywhere you hear men saying: "We are going to have an administration that will be worse than the Schmitz-Ruef af-

You hear it in the clubs. You hear it in the hotels. You hear it in the exchanges. You hear it on the street.

Why?

Men do not want to go back to the Schmitz-Ruel regime. The tendency of the community is not that way. But people have begun to realize up and down the line that the present administration is asmine to the point of hundering the development of San Fran-

The men who were burned out have re-established themselves. They have not been over-squeamish. When they couldn't get a private house to put their goods in they took a shack. They have made the best of things. Their main idea was the re-establishment of trade and the recreation of San Francisco life.

Our idiotic administration has not taken the business idea, but has poetized on the principle that this city of the western seas could be transformed into a Paritanical village of superior culturine with a trace of anti-fat here and there. The notion is that if the old-fashioned sort of business is stopped in a section of the city, that section will immediately blossom intoa beautiful back street of a New England village, with elms and maples and horse chestnuts bending over the red brick door easings, and with men and women, prayer books in hand, setting forth for "meetin'."

The fact that this is a hard-list scaport town has not yet bored itself into the minds of our administration-particularly the Police Commission.

Just now they are going to drive all the drinking places frequented by women into the region of New Alsatia. They never stop to ask what is to become. of our old "Tenderloin"---an expression that im our poverty of invention we borrowed from New York.

Just east your eye backward. Let's take one corner -Eddy and Mason streets. We had there the new Tivoli-hideous, inadequate, grown out of a dance hall. «We had there the "New" Poodle Dog-a glory of the things that are, but are supposed to be not. We had Eddy and Walton's saloon. We had Spider Kelly's and a eigar stand kept by Captain Jack Mar-

That certainly did not indicate an absorbing ecstasy of all the proprieties. It wasn't a place toward which a devotee would dire this steps for prayer.

Very good. We now have on that crossing of streets a fine jumble of rains, except that on one corner is a cellar where drinks are served and an upstairs lodging where the interrogation point is not used to knock down those who venture in. There is no dancing in the cellar. There is no music upstairs.

But women of the night do drink in that cellar. So it must go into New Al-atia. It pollutes the neighborhood. It contaminates the society of a corner where none steps except out of experience, necessity or the open eyed pleasuring. It is a concer that must be cut away. AS , 46 , 48

But, in the name of all that's sensible what are you going to put there on that corner that before the fire was given up to no questions asked? That corner is taken merely as a well-known exemplar. What is going to be built in that neighborhood? What is going to give value to property there? It is not the retail district. It is not the wholesale district. It is not the manufacturing district. It never was retail, wholesale or manufacturing district. What is to be done

Can't our administration see that what is needed is first the rebuilding of San Francisco-and then the reforming of it. But our municipal jackasses insist on going about things in just the other way, and the Commissioners would rather have a vacant brick pile than any kind of a building where men and women happen to drink together, even though that building were in the heart of the old Tenderloin.

That is largely why men are saying the city will go hars to a Schmitz-Ruel regime rather than stand any more of this Puritanical nonsense at a time when such nonserse is too danged expensive. Let's get the tumbled bricks set up again before we start an agitation to make everybody go to Sunday school.

.4 ,4 ,4 Our Police Judge Shortall has just been put up against a dilemma with two very pronounced horns. He has been asked to decide whether the "Call" lackwits did or did not libel P. H. McCarthy when they said he had been politically closeted with Herrin.

Probably the thing was a lie out of whole cloth. That is the way of the distracted "Call." But Judge Shortall is in a dilemma none the less,

If he lets the "Call" editors go he will never get the coveted Union Labor nomination for Police Judge.

If he doesn't let the newspaper men go, what a roasting the "Call" is sure to give him.

That reminds me of M M prphy's tale of once Police Judge Charlie Low. It was when Arthur McEwen had sued Tom Flynn of the "Wasp" for libel and the case was in Judge Low's court. Low had been a newspaper man and so was "wise,"

"Who's going to get the better of it in that case of McEwen agains Flynn in your court?" asked Murphy out of a genial curiosity.

"I haven't yet made up my mind who is going to get the better o it," replied Judge Low, "but I know darned well who is going to get the worst of it." "Who is?"

"I am."

Up in Rabjolm & Marcone's little gallery on Van Ness avenue has recently been displayed a painting in oil-a landscrpe by Arthur W. Best. The artists and connoisseur, have been talking a lot about that painting. There has been a sort of pilgrimage to it, as if to a shrine. The men who do not throw away their compliments have recognized it as a stroke of good fortune on the part of an artist who is always conscientious and frequently unusual. All real artists know that at some time or other they put over something they can never duplicate—they can't tell how or why they did it, but they know the thing is good. That picture by Best belongs in that class of the rare things.

Well, there is a funny story connected with that recognized stroke of genius. It was sent up to the exhibition for the hill the exhibition of the Hopkins-Seatles Academy, affiliated with the University of California. There it was viewed by the commit-100--

And rejected!

Now, you nee in't think that committee doesn't know a good picture. The men on that committee are skilled in art. Some of them are among our greatest artists.

Then how doe it come that a painting that has had such a vogue when displayed in a little gallery was thrown out "on the hill"?

Well, you know. Best and his talented wife have an academy all their own. Strange to say, they have as many pupils as the institution "on the bill." They have real studen life in their academy. The young men and women have much of the free joyousness of La Boheme. They got together in exhibitions, serious and counc, heve "Jinks" and studio dances. And---Well, Bost's great painting was rejected, you know.

If we should reverse the ancient aphorism and declare that a man is as old as he looks, what a travesty would have been the retirement of Admiral Will-Swinburne in favor of Admiral Uriel Schree. As a matter of looks, Swinburne is young enough to be Sobree's son. Yet in the counting of the years Swinburne myst go out first.

Your Caklanders of a comparatively few years ago will remember Syinburne. He was then a lieutenant. in command of an odd-shaped craft called the Mc-Arthur- colloquicity known as the "McCarthy,"—that pm in its time in Oakland harbor when not out on coast survey work. The men of the ship were of the beginnings of the Athenian Club, while Swinburne lived on Jackson street and was part of the then exclusive society of the Lakeside district.

Years after, when the Spanish war came, Oaklanders could trace S vinburne in command of the Hele ia, capturing one Sp. wish craft after another down in the Gelf of Mexico and the Caribbean. And in time he was admiral -ame now he is retired.

And for all the world be doesn't look a year older than he did when he was in Oakland society as a lientenant. But Selice looks the hardened sea-dog, with the lines in his face, supposed to be made by the spindrift and the rime. So it seems a comedy to see Swinburne's youth ret red in favor of Sebrec's age.

But the wise of I government intends to keep Swinburne at it for a viule yet. He doesn't want to quit, He's ready for a 'fight or a frolic". But he must be content with a place on one of the boards at Washington, where his ability as an organizer and commander will still do duty for his country.

.44 .44 .45 Some of our civil soldiers don't know the fate that was in store for them if the Governor could have been persueded to sign the bill of the last Legislature providing for a Board of Embalmers. They'll never know how close the thing came to being put over. If the Governor had had just one whit more humor, and was just one whit more careless of the interests of the State, the trick would have been turned and the laugh would have run the rounds.

Of course there is no more need of a Board of Embalmers in California than there is for a Board of Suckers. But some of the undertakers wanted the thing to go through, and it was passed as a josh. At once the jokers, readed by Al Murphy, started to make up that board. At once Lieutenant-Governor Warren Porter stood in. He loves a joke himself. Governor Gillett laughs a lot too, and he came near to taking part in the folly. If he had laughed just once more the Board of Embalmers of California would have been:

Colonel Frank Marston, mixer of the dope.

Colonel George Tippy, holder of the funeral. manamanani, manamanani, manamanani, manamanani, manamanani, manamanani, manamanani, manamanani, manamanani, ma

Colonel Ike Trumbo, opener of the mouth

Colonel Charles Hanton, presser of the bulb. Colonel Hornick, wiper of the chin.

Could you beat it for a Board of Embalmers that would have made two guffaws to grow where one grew before?

The active campaign for the municipal offices will open in this city in about a week, the date remaining yet to be set. The formality will probably consist of club meetings of the various parties in the different Assembly districts, which will probably be held on the same night.

The Republicans as usual will take the lead and the Denocrats follow at a respectful distance or two or three days later.

Up to date the main interest has centered in the offices of Mayor and District Attorney. The Republicans appear to have taken up William Crocker, the plan ng mill man, for Mayor, although there are still whisperings of another candidate to be trotted out later, but it would seem that so many interests have been committed to the candidacy of Crocker that the aphorism of changing horses in the middle of the stream would apply to the situation. The introduction of a new candidate at this time would be disastrous, unless the new man be a veritable in pir tion in the line of availability for the office, and influences of that character are rare in the practical game of

That Crocker is gaining ground finds confirm tion in the fact that Senator Eddie Wolfe has come out for him. This is specially significant, as it tends to solid by Crocker's home district, the Thirty-seventh, for his candidacy. When Crocker was first mentioned for Mayor Senator Wolfe bitterly opposed him because of his having been "discovered" by Tim Sull van, who is one of the bosses of the Thifty-seventh, which Wolfe claims as his own bailiwick, and in which he will brock no opposition. But now it is said that I'm and Eddie have shaken hands and all is lovely bety een them in pursuance of the fable of the lion and the ' mib

It appears that Schaior Wolfe's opposition to Croeker was not based so much upon his distille to Tim Sullivan as it was upon Senator Eddie's own ambition to be Mayor of San Francisco. Wolfe has cherished this Mayoralty bee for at least two campaigrs and the political insect had come to azz furiously, no matter what kind of a hat the Secator

Early in the present campaign Wolfe broachee his ambition to one of the big political chiefs. The latter was lenient and even tender with the aspiring Senctor. "I think too much of you to have you sacrifice yourself in that way," was the manner in which the political boss sought to ease Wolfe of his great political

But Senator Eddie refused to be either comfetted or instructed by the kindly suggestion of the policical boss. He approached another political leader with the tale of his ambitions. This man advised him not to get it to the right, but stated that Wolfe had a ho t of Friends who would fight for him to the last. He thought, however, that Wolfe should remain Senstor,

The candidate of the Republican organization for this office appears to be an unknown quantity as vet, but it is said that he is to be a man new to the game, and that none of those in the mentioned list to date will be apt to secure the coveted indorsement at the

$5 SS SS

There is a sad and almost melancholy rumor going the political rounds that Percy V. Long may be deprived of the office of City Attorney at the approaching municipal election. Long had it arranged in his own mind to remain in his present office for ano her term and then elevate himself to the Superior Beach! just as a token of political merit.

But Ben McKinley, nephew of the martyr President. McKinley, and who now is a deputy United States District Attorney, has developed an ambition for municipal place and has turned his gaze on the ottice of City Attorney. McKinley is an officer of the Knights of Columbus, which organization is credited with wanting little this campaign, but wants that latte very much and expects to get it. McKinley is said to have the indorsement of the Knights of Columbus for City Attorney, and the indications are that Longwill have to put his roller skates on to beat hin at the primary. چې چې چې

The remarkable spectacle of an office holder voluntarily returng to private life is to be presented in General Koster, the auditor. Koster is engaged in the barrel business, having a monopoly of the trade on this coast. His private business requires his attention and he announces that he is out of politics and will not be a candidate for renomination. Mathewson his chief deputy, is a candidate for the nomination, and it is said that he will fall heir to the Kower influence and support in his canvass, for the office, John E. McDougald is, of course, a candidate to succood himself as treasurer, at such times as he is not runni g up lightning rods to attract the nomination for A eyor. Me lougald is about as well qualified to fill the office of treasurer as the average citizen would be to take charge of a man-of-war in mid-ocean, but the p blic have become accustomed to associating his name with the office and vote for him as a matter of

Ta: Collector Bush will try to succeed himself, but he has a fight or his hands for John Rogers, the real estate man and former Civil Service Commissioner, also vants the nomination for that office. Rogers is an ac ve young man and a natural politician without havin ever got lown into the muck and mire of the game. He was formerly active in the Thirty-fifth distri of the Mission and later took a hand in the Thirt ninth district, and has many friends and supporte: in both these sections. He has managed the camp: gns of Congressman E. A., otherwise "Red" Have with signal success, and it is understood that Haye will reciprocate by doing all he can to help Roger along in his fight for tax collector.

35 35 35 The Republican party is regarded by the political leader as the organization in which to accomplish result this campaign. According to the register of voters the Republicans have recorded 66 per cent of all the names thus far registered for this campaign to the Democrats 22 per cent, the Union Labor party 10 per cent, the remaining 2 per cent being distributed amon; the Socialists and those electors who decline to male known their political affiliation when they register, and who are designated at the Bureau of Electi us as "refusals."

In 1 e Democratic camp the leaders appear to be laying on their oars and awaiting the arrival of June 1st, al at which time they propose to open their campaign. The Big Chief, Gavin McNab, is in the southern pa t of the State looking after the interests of the estate eft by "Licky" Baldwin, which he is trying to devele into many times its present value, and as McNa is a shrewd business man as well as good lawye I expect to see him accomplish what he has under ken.

In the meantime the Democratic machine seems to be we sing automatically and making nominations withou the aid of bosses or delegates to conventions and ev n without calling upon the new direct primary law to assist in the work of selecting the same old clique or coterie to the offices.

It is onceded that Dr. T. B. W. Leland, the present Corone, will be the nominee of the Democrats for Mayor There was some talk of Leland having an oppone it in David I. Mahoney, the lawyer, who was named by the San Francisco Democratic club, who are oppose to McNap and who the regulars style the "bolter"," But Mahoney got cold pedals and withdrew : did also Supervisor Ralph McLeran, who received he indorsement of this faction for sheriff. Apparent the prospects of the short end of the Bourbon works id not look good to these two ambitious politici ns.

This would seem to leave the McNab machine a clear field on the Democratic side. It is said that former S pervisor H. U. Brandenstein can have the Democ atic nomination for District Attorney if he wishes t. In this relation reports diverge. Some are that B indensiein not only wants the nomination but that he has already arranged to that end. Other stories un that the present Park Commissioner will have r ne of political office, wishing to devote his time to quite a large corporation practice which he now ha . Still another story is of a commercial family, ambitic is for public preferment and power that accompanies igh political station. My guess is that Brandenstei will be the nominee of the Democratic party for Dis rict Attorney to succeed Langdon and that prior to his election he will be most satisfactory to both perform are and reformers, but after he is inducted into office, nould that be the outcome of the election .well, if it is another question. Brandenstein has always been albed by family and professional association with the larger interests of this city and these interests are get rally demanding a cessation of the strife and turmoil that has contributed so much to the present financi: and commercial unrest.

The author is for Tom Hickey being returned to the office of attorney to the Public Administrator, which i cans that M. J. Hynes, for some reason always called 'Billy' Hynes, will be nominated by the Democrats for the main place again. Hynes is not so generally I opular as Le once was, because of a development or strong commercial instructs. It appears that between campaigns, "Billy" charges the various church and cha table societies for his monologues and alleged funny's its and songs. When he is making his canvass to office he throws in his strenuous wit for nothing which is a fair valuation. The various organizati as that have listened to this heavy weight wit at so m oh per per ormance, do not think him half as funny w en invoiced as when he contributes his buiky humor without price as he does during a canvass for an office for himself and Hickey.

The Republicans are talking of nominating Joe Mansfield, former city editor of the Call in the days when John D. Spreckels was running that publication, for Public Administrator. Mansfield has many friends and supporters, and is making a vigorous fight for the nomination. It is said that if Mansfield is successful that Charles H. Forbes, secretary of the Republ can County Committee, will succeed Tom Hickey as attorney to the Public Administrator.

That Larry Dolan will be renominated for Sheriff by the regular Democratic organization goes without he saving, Dolan having been one of McNab's right-hand men for many years. Of course Edmond Godchaux will be renominated for Recorder on the Democratic ticket, and it is said that Harry Mulcrevy, who has been renominated for County Clerk by the Union Labor party, may also be named by the Democrats Billy Dinuigan, the liquor dealer, looks to be in line for the Bourbon nomination for Tax Collector.

The outlook is for the Democrats nominating the same old bunch that has been at the public crib for from two to ten years to take another turn at the political pie counter. New timber does not appear to be in favor with the Bourbon clans, and those of their number who have had their feet in the public trough for several terms do not propose to be nosed by interlopers who imagine that they are carded to some of the pap.

There is something doing in the office or the United State: District Attorney in the big Federal building at the corner of Seventh and Mission streets. Uneasy lie the heads of some of the subordinates in that department. The trouble grew out of the Benson-Perrin land fraud cases which have caused such a pother both here and in Washington, D. C., to say nothing of activities among the courts and sheriffs of 34, 34, 34,

Both John A. Benson and Dr. E. B. Perrin were convicted by a jury in the United States District Court of detrauding the government relative to some lands in Tenama county. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals gave Dr. Perrin a new trial, whereupon the latter proceeded to Washington and made some charges against United States District Attorney Robert Davlin. That Perrin has a "pull" in the National capital is apparent, for he succeeded in having the confirmation of the reappointment of United States District Attorney Devlin held up, the Senate refusing to confirm the selection by President Taft until its Judiciary Committee should have investigated the charges preferred by Perrin.

Now comes a dispatch from Washington stating that Senator Borah has demanded that the prosecution of Perrir be dropped on the ground that there is not sufficient evidence to show criminal intent on the part of that defendant. The wire states further that the Department of Justice has conceded the demand of Borah and that the appointment of Devlin will now be confirmed by the Schate.

But the Federal mix-up apparently is not going to end here. John A. Benson was convicted as the coconspirator of Dr. Perrin, and the latter being absolved from the charge by the Senate Committee, it would appear that Benson is left to conspire alone, which I believe is a pretty difficult thing to do under the laws of this country. It will probably be next in order to acquit Benson of his lone conspiracy, to which course that veteran dealer in soverument lands and scrip will probably enter no protest.

I am told that in the District Attorney's office they have passed the buck for the whole trouble to Alfred P. Black, the first assistant, and that there will be no vigorous objection to the acceptance of his resignation. Black had special charge of the Benson-Perrin cases before the United States Grand Jury and in their preliminary preparation for trial. District Attorney Devlin says that he knew nothing of them until he went into court to assist in their formal trial, which he did in good faith, believing both men guilty according to the report of his assistant.

It would look very nuch as though someone connected with the Distric' Attorney's office had included in his menu a dish of a large black bird with a forked tongue, commonly called crow.

The various and numerous leagues that infested the political situation during the last campaign seem to have concentrated for this canvass into what they call the Municipal League of Independent Republican Clubs. This combination has organized so-called Independent Clubs in three or four Assembly districts, and I understand that it is their present purpose to organize such clubs in seven of the larger of the eighteen Assembly districts comprised within the city and county of San Francisco.

Edwin T. McMurray, the lawyer, formerly of the office of Charles Wheeler, who was the leader and president of this movement last year, has nominally slid into the second place of secretary. Geo. E. Crothers, a young lawyer and who has heretofore been conspieuous only as one of the heirs to the estate of the late Senator James G. Fair has been made president of the new league. The general plan and tone of this movement have been greatly modified from the last campaign. They no longer pose as bridge burners and party wrecker. They talk against the bosses and in favor of good government, but they shy at the word "reformer," and take every opportunity to deny that they are reformers, but simply want good officials. They propose to nominate a primary ticket by means of a conference commit ee or convention made up of delegates from the district clubs. But, according to their declarations in the clubs, they propose to abide by the result of the primary and still be Republicans even should their ticket go down to defeat at the preliminary election.

Their temper does not appear to be at all vicious in this fight. They say that they will go to it at the primary and whichever Republican faction wins its candidates shall constitute the regular Republican ticket at the general election in November.

The Independents do not appear to have been successful in their efforts to secure a special candidate for Mayor. They have brought pressure to bear on James Rolph Jr., the banker and improvement club man of the Mission, but Rolph has made emphatic declaration that he will not enter the contest under any conditions. Quite a number of the district leaders of the Independents are committed to William Crocker, the planing mill man, for Mayor, so that the situation is full of complications and possibilities. There is quite a percentage of the Independents who still claim to believe that they will be able to induce Rolph to put on his war paint and enter the contest for the Mayoralty.

John Lackman, former Supervisor and former Sheriff, who long ago became a reformer because the regular Republican organization did not need him as a program Supervisor, and who, by reason of his rigid uprightness in this regard, was placed in the honorary hst of "Honest Johns," is out as a candidate for Mayor, but willing to take the sliding scale down to Sheriff. The Independents may take up this one of the "Honest Johns," but as yet there has been no stampede in his direction. Lackman, though, like other "Honest Johns," has a large store of patience. .થ હ્યા હ્ય

. The present plan of the Good Government League to put a ticket in the field by petition at the November election may go awry. The scheme of the Good Government forces is to avoid entering into competition with the various political organizations at the open and direct primary to be held on August 17th, but to make up a ticket from the candidates of the other parties and place it on the general ballot by petition, and thus get before the electors with a hybrid ticket they will claim as their own.

That the Good Government machine will be balked in this scheme is thought by some lawyers who hold that the Direct Primary law passed by the Legislatine at its recent session superceded all other primary laws and that a ticket may be nominated in no other way than that provided by the direct primary measure. There are legal authorities who claim that the right to nominate a ticket by petition, as formerly provide I by the Political Code, no longer exists, it having beet done away with by the Direct Primary act, the passage of which made it the only means by which a ticket may be nominated and presented to the electors for their approval or disapproval at a general election.

The State Constitution empowers the Legislature to enact laws relative to primary elections. The electors of California at the last election, adopted, an amendment to the Constitution empowering the Legislature to enact laws providing for the direct nomination of candidates,-otherwise to provide for direct primaries. The Legislature at its last session passed a law providing for the direct nomination of cardidates at primaries to be held throughout the State on the third Tuesday in August. It is claimed by lawyers, whose opinions are of weight, that this direct primary law superce ed all ther existing primary laws, including the pro-ision of the Political Code, that permits of the nome ation of candidates by petition.

If this cor-ention is sustained the Good Government League will be unable to nonmate a ticket by petition next November .-- in short, the so-called Good Government Le. que, otherwise Isidor Jacobs and Rudolph Spreekels, will find their political machine decidedly out of gear, f not absolutely out of commission, and they will no onger be able to use it as a political club to intimidat candidates and electors of the regular party organ ations.

The Unio Labor party has gone all to pieces over the nominat on of P. H. McCarthy for Mayor. His naming of honself, through the conference committee, has fallen his a wet blanket on the organization. The Union Labo party, already badly shattered, received another shoe in the nomination of McCarthy. The registrations of this party have fallen below the 6000 mark, and t = 16,000 votes that McCarthy received two years ag are not believed to be attainable by him again. At that time there was a labor administration in charge of he municipality, and McCarthy received the benefits coits struggle to perpetuate itself in office. All the pate nage of the Board of Works and other municipal desartments was used to advantage in the McCarthy ca didacy. Now there is no such influence to back the n mination of the president of the Building Trades Cour il, and many of his most active backers at that time . 'e opposed to him in this canvass.

The nomination of McCarthy has so demoralized the Labor Union political or rangation that some of the aspirants for of the prior to his being chosen by the committee for M yor, no lorger wish places on the ticket. The Confere ce Committee was to have met last Wednesday coming and resumed its work of filling the remainder or the thirty-one places on the ticket, it having name but three candidates---Mayor, Sheriff and County Cerk, at the first meeting. But there was a rift in the ute and the candidates not coming forward the co-mittee adjourned until tonight, when another atten at will be made to fill in the ticket.

It is now aid that A cCarthy will not be without opposition at the primary election. Friends of Frank J. Sullivan, t e brother-in-law of Phelan, say he is to enter the figl , with Ed Moran, the former Civil Service Commissoner, for his political manager. Sullivan joined the U ion Labor party at the opening of this campaign by o announcing his party affiliation on the register of ve ers, he having previously been recorded as a Democre .

It is thought that Sullivan must have had some assurances before taking this step. What showing he will be able to make against McCarthy at the primary is problemat al. McCarthy is an organizer of considerable exp rience and capacity, and is the nominal candidate, at east, of a party with a registered vote of about 6000

SAN FRANCISCO. May 28.—There was presented to Treasurer McDougald today for payment a demand against the city dated June 30, 1909, for $30 originally due D. B. Todd. Todd mishaid the demand at the time he secured it, and subsequently died, after which the demand was found among his papers by his executor, C. E. Dunshee, who now asks that it be paid. Treasurer McDougald refused to pay the money on the ground that there is no money now available for the payment of bills incurred in 1900. He consented to pass the matter on however, to the Auditor for further consideration.

What Church Would Jesus Join?

OW many people have ever stopped to inquire what are to join any of our churches. He would say, 'My church Jesus would affiliate with were He on earth? eliurch consists of all."

Each separate denomination affects to believe that its creed alone points the true way to salvation, but all claim authority from Jesus. The claim of the Roman Catholics that Jesus founded a church with St. Peter at its head is denied by all Protestant denominations save the Church of England, which styles itself Catholic but which has been wittily described as neither Protestant nor Catholic; moreover, the claim rests rather upon the fact that the Apostles organized the Christian Church after the crucifixion than authentic record of any organization formed by the Savior. Certainly creeds and dogmas were evolved after the martyrdom of Jesus.

But underlying the question of what church Jesus would join if He were on earth is a query of deeper and more vital moment. Do the churches of today stand for the spirit and purpose of the founder of Christianity? What deno nination would receive and welcome Him if he came preaching in the fields and denouncing the pride, selfishness and injustice of mankind, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit for they shall inherit the kingdom of heaven." Instead of being received as a messenger of glad tidings, would be not more likely be regarded as a disturber of the congregation, a teacher of heresy and a stirrer up of wrath and sedition? That evidently is the view of Rev. Charles A. Eaton of the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, New York City. In a recent sermon Dr. Eaton asked: "What church would Jesus join if He were in New York?" This is the way he answered himself:

' If Jesus came here to New York, which church would is free, and that the key to heaven is not in either ceclesihe join? I'm afraid some of the churches wouldn't let Him astical or sectarian hands. "Render unto Caesar the things in. He wouldn't be orthodox, and He would be sure to be that are Caesar's," "Be just and fear not," said He. Has too broad. He might prefer going out on a street corner and talking to a newsboy or a bartender or a pickpocket to speaking from the pulpit of one of our fine edifices. He'd be a most difficult member to get along with in any church, for He'd be too unconventional.

The garbage is carried to was made to an Orange county orange grove which was sold for sea many mile, beyond the heads of the Golden Gate and far outside the league limit over which the Federal government has jurisdiction. But Bolinas bay farmers have raised the cry that this method of garbage disposal s polluting the ocean beach off Bolinas and that a hundred of their hogs have been poisoned by feeding on the refuse. canvassing county properties and the values of the products of The latter charge may be dismissed as absurd, for although hogs are voracious scavengers they do not eat anything that they cannot assimilate. But it is of a kind with another statement made by the imaginative ro nancist at San Rafael who reports Dr. Blue's new activities, to the effect that "last week a broken hed lounge drifted ashore County Assessors are not so much to blame for unequal assessments as is the law under which they work. All personal property valuabelow Willow Camp and clinging to it were several dozen half drowned rats that had evidently been dumped out with the Berkeley garbage and found safety in their strange life raft!" By what occult process the identification of the source whence the lounge and the rats came is not explained, of course. One thing is certain, the pestiferous rats are nearly as scarce as hen's teeth on this side of the bay, as the result of the anti-rodent crusade, but it is not in evidence that Marin county has taken any special pains to relieve itself of the Garbage disposal at sea is nothing new. It has been in vogue on the Atlantic Coast for decades. It is admittedly a sanitary means ne work endeavoring to reach the same kind of equitable adjustment of disposing of garbage, for the simple reason, if mone other were available, that the salt water of the sea is an absolute disinfectant. As to wnether it is the most economical, effective and scientific method of disposing of garbage is another question. There is scarcemake an equitable adjustment. It is a friendly movement and will by a dissenting voice raised anywhere against incineration of garbage tend to produce satisfactory results and relieve the State Board, at if done moftensively.

Why, it may be asked, however, should the charge be made at this time that Oakland and Berkeley garbage is polluting the ocean beaches of Marin county and nothing is said about the dumping of the offal of San Francisco Butchertown into the bay, or of the dumping of the dredgings of the San Francisco sewer deposits in the slips and docks in the midbay channel which has been going on for an in-But the course adopted by the State Equalizers this year ought to definite period? These gowns are made of fine materials, and trimmed with pre-ty-two-thread lices and strongly worked embroideries. Three of the nine styles are in the popular Empire evets, and laintier or handsomer night garments it would be difficult to imagine. Two of the other styles he e round necks -- two others button down the front - another has a high neck, with yoke of embroidery and tuck - and still another is made of crossbar lawn, and has a face yoke and tremmed sleeves

"Impossible"—the word is not in my dictionary," said Napoleo i. It is not in ours, either. So, despite the fact that many women said it was "impossible to better the values in our last gown sale, we are sure you will agree with us that these are much the handsomest and best garmer is we have ever had for the money.

WANT A SWELL, LOT IN ELMWOOD PARK?—We have three beauties.

WANT A 7-ROOM HOUSE ON EASY TERMS?-Here's a snup. We are primed today with your crackerjack proposition,

Our office will be open from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. to accommodate inquiries, sure to look these up.

Our building proposition is wonderfully liberal,

The ranch we advertise is a beauty and a big money maker.
The three lots in Elimwood Park are among the finest in the country and one of them at $2500 is unquestionably one of the greatest snaps that ever came into this office. The 7-room house is a beauty.

Read them all—They're all good. Read them all—They're all good.

FIRST. The building proposition—We will pay all the bills for any kind of a house you desire to build and buy you any lot you choose in Grand Avenue Heights, providing the total does not figure over $5000 and providing you pay us $1000 d.wm.

We want twinty-five more artistic homes in Grand Avenue Heights and would just as soon build them after homes. One of the olighnal buyers has three your plans is not. So here's your chance. Grand Avenue Heights is eight at the head of Lake Merritt, foneside of Adams Point, BU' PROTECTED FROM THIS WINDS.

It is destined to be the finest residential district in Colcium one of these three dental district in Colcium one of these three lots, right in the lead of the lake, right in the pay of the lead of the lote, right longside the force.

Point, BU' PROTECTED FROM THE WINDS.

It is destined to be the finest residential district in Onkiand, as it lies right at the head of the loke, right longside the magnificent new Gand Avenue Scenic Boulovaid and within the city limits of Oakland. It is within 8 minutes to Fourteenth and 3 rouwway and 1½ miles nearer Oakland. It is within 8 minutes to Fourteenth and 3 rouwway and 1½ miles nearer Oakland than Fredmont.

Be sure to see us today about this, as we cannot inakee over twonty-five builders. Today would be a good day to inspect the tract. Dur antos are at your service.

SECOND—The Ranch—25 acres of 2-year-oid Zh fandel grapes which come into bearing next year is for sale oc exchange for Oaklam or Berkeley Improved property. The rice is $1250.
